Private Law 98-9
98th Congress

An Act

For the relief of William D. Benoni.

Feb. 22, 1984
[H.R. 1557]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) notwithstanding any other provision of law, jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts to review and render judgment on the decision of Public Law Board 1464 with respect to the discharge of William D. Benoni of South Deerfield, Massachusetts, from his employment with the Boston and Maine Railroad Corporation. In conducting such review, the court shall consider any alleged fraud or corruption by a member of the Public Law Board that was committed prior to the convening of the Board, if such fraud or corruption relates to the dispute which was the subject of the Board's decision.

William D.
Benoni.

(b) Any previous decision of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts with respect to the matter described in subsection (a) of this section shall not be a bar to the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this Act, and shall not be considered by the court in reviewing and rendering judgment with respect to such matter.

SEC. 2. The jurisdiction conferred by the first section of this Act shall not apply to any action commenced more than six months after the date of enactment of this Act.

Approved February 22, 1984.

Private Law 98-10 98th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Apolonio P. Tumamao and others.

Mar. 14, 1984
[H.R. 1750]

Certain Navy Department civilian employees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each of the following-named persons is relieved of all liability to repay the United States and is entitled to a refund of the amount which appears beside his name:

	Indebtedness
Apolonio P. Tumamao	$1,137.50
Milton M. Ikawa	2,032.50
Malcolm B. Shin	2,032.50
Mamerto A. Garma	1,938.00
John B. MacKinnon	2,028.75
Kenneth A. Grigsby	2,032.50.

The amounts represent overpayments of per diem allowances as a result of administrative failures by officials of the United States Government in implementing a regulatory change in the per diem rate in the case of the above-named civilian employees of the Department of the Navy who were performing extended temporary duty training assignments during the period May 1977 to January 1980. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount of payments made pursuant to this Act.

Approved March 14, 1984.
